

OLD WORLD IS COMPARED TO U. S. CITIES

The lecture on "European Cities" by the municipalist Dr. W. E. Morgan of Berkeley at Polytechnic hall last night was a rousing call to constructive ideals in city government, education and sanitation. He paid the highest compliment to Swiss and German cities as models of efficiency, beauty and wholesome living. This was due to the intelligence of the people in living experts for their administrative work. He did not see why American cities should complex social, financial and educational work to amateurs. It is out of date and ruinous.

Many interesting questions were answered after the lecture. It is hoped to have the speaker return as he proved himself to be a practical experienced man in municipal affairs.

IT'S PROPERLY PUT

In the recent great parade of striking garment workers of Chicago, one of the banners bore this:

"Citizens of Chicago, can you afford to support an underpaid industry?"

It is a question that Chicago and every other city should think over, for it is not only the persons who are underpaid, but those who are well paid, among them the rich and prosperous, who really support the underpaid industry.

The underpaid industry is wholly a calamity to a city, just as is an epidemic of small-pox, and some day cities will deal with underpaid industries as they do the dangerous epidemics affecting their physical health.

The underpaid industry promotes poverty, with all its pains and sufferings. It produces goods of inferior quality, and thence defrauds. Socially and economically, it is a calamity.

The individual or corporation that imposes an underpaid industry upon a community should be put down, just as are the keepers of gambling dens or bagnios, being just as dangerous to good morals, good health and good government.

Such an industry is indirectly, just as much a charge for support upon all citizens as is the professional pauper, the habitual drunkard, the chronic criminal, the confirmed insane, or any other dependent. There may be moral variance in these calamities. There is finally no difference in their effects, nor in any of them do the citizens escape bearing the burden of their support.

Proprietors of the Chicago garment-making shops make big profits by underpaying their help. They make it out of all the rest of Chicago, which surely has to make up, in one way or another, the difference between unfair and fair wages. The rich Chicagoan, who urges the police to put down those skirt, cloak, waist and pant makers' demand for more than $7 per week is an ass is not realizing that he finally pays this difference.

Society foolishly refuses to see any self-interest in fair wages for those 15,000 people in the parade. If a man started a skunk farm at earborn and State sts., Chicago, how they'd hustle him out! Yet here are dozens of men running institutions for the promotion of poverty—prostitution, crime and disease epidemics—and Chicago, as a whole, doesn't feel particularly interested.

An underpaid industry should be treated as a public nuisance and danger.

It is not only an attempt to degrade human beings, but it is also an attempt to get rich on the community's money, since the community, in one form or another, finally supports the underpaid, or makes good the losses accruing from underpayment.

"Citizens, can you afford to support an underpaid industry?" is an almighty fine way of putting the question of starvation wages up to where it belongs.

THE BROKER KNOWS BETTER

In an effort to shoo the eager lambs away from the Wall St. shearing pen, Wm. Sherer, head of the N. Y. Clearing House says:

"Ask the broker who shows you how to make $30 for $10 why he doesn't keep the investment for himself."

Ask any promoter of a get-rich quick proposition such a question, and you corner him. Eve, if we remember rightly neglected to ask Satan at first to take a bite out of the apple, and many of her children have lost by following her example in not making the tempter sample his own goods. During the past weeks of hysteria in Wall St. the brokers have been raking off between $1,000,000 and $1,500,000 in commissions weekly. They risk nothing. They get rich quick on a sure thing.

But neither these facts nor all the warnings that can be given will reduce the number of sheep at the shearing. Speculation in Wall street is a sort of insanity, and it can be successfully treated only by methods brought to bear upon other forms of insanity.

It is our time, there were a Tree of Forbidden Fruit with a 40-foot Satan curled around it, there would be a struggling crowd of people under it, clubbing off the apples, until society sensibly cut down the tree.

---Merchants in all lines of business in Richmond give American Trading Stamps. Patronize these stores and always demand your "American Stamps."

---Never has a trading stamp existed that gives as much to the people as American Stamps

---And the important fact, which has made American Stamps so popular, is because it requires only 500 to fill a book.

Article 3 of a series of advertisements for the housewives of Richmond

NOW HERE WE HAVE SOME REAL FACTS AND WERE SERIOUS TOO

In response to the insistant demands of the fans, Bill Luce, manager of the local club, yesterday made arrangements with manager Barnes of the Richmond-San Rafael ferry system to handle a crowd of local fans. The Richmond delegation will leave on the 10:15 ferry from Point Richmond. Jitney busses will carry the fans from the arin county landing to San Rafael. A train will leave San Rafael at 11:45 for Sebastopol, arriving that place at 2 o'clock. The fans will leave Sebastopol at 5 o'clock. A special boat will leave the Marin shore at 8 o'clock for Richmond.

Tomorrow's contest is attractin' more than ordinary interest. In the first place, the game is probably the last of the season away the home lot. There is still a possibility of a game at Petaluma and one at San Rafael but this is not very certain.

Next Sunday the Elks will hook up with the Oakland Coast League crew on the local pasturage and the following Sunday will play Oroville, champions of the Trolley League and Northern California.

If Richmond can get by with tomorrow's game, the club will be in a position to claim the championship of Sonoma county. A win over Oroville will give the locals, the northern title and will practically cinch the state title.

If Richmond can sink the Coasters, it certainly will be a big feather in the local club's cap. However, it is tomorrow's game upon which considerable depends. Sebastopol and Richmond present the pick of the talent outside of the Coast League, Sebastopol has used practically the same club the entire season and the same has held good with Richmond. With these two exceptions, probably no other club has had the same men on the pay roll the entire season. Both clubs desire to win. Thomas is working over time inoculating the importance of the contest into the systems of his club and the fans up Sebastopol way will turn out several thousand strong to see tomorrow's match.

A great deal depends upon the nine men of the club. Today we present an appeal to each and every member of the club to do their best in tomorrow's battle. The club has played wonderful ball all season and the majority of defeats were due to "bad breaks." The club to a man has put up the best there was in them.

Tomorrow a slip will mean defeat. The city of Richmond owes much to Bill Luce and the members of the baseball club. The city has gained thousands of dollars of advertising which this city would otherwise not receive. A victory tomorrow will mean thousands of dollars of advertising which this city would otherwise not receive.

Frank Gordon will pitch tomorrow's game. Frank is in good condition. There does not seem one possible avenue of defeat. It must be admitted that Sebastopol has a great baseball machine. But Kremer, the club's pitching main stay is not an impossible man to beat. In fact, the local club has found his offerings without any great difficulty.

We now introduce the young men to whom Richmond looks for the state championship:

FRANK GORDON, OSCAR SCHINKLE AND CHARLIE BURNS, pitchers.

CLIFTON CLEEK, catcher.

KENNETH INGRAHAM, first base.

HARVEY CHRISTIANSON, second base.

JACK CONGER, short stop.

EDWARD BENN, third base.

WILLIAM DANIELS, center field.

"ROD" MURPHY, right field.

ROY WOODBURY, extra.

Go and get 'em fellows. We can not promise any filthy lucre as a reward, but we can promise that no members of the club will ever regret bringing home the state title. The fans of Richmond know that every man on the club has been loyal to the club and city. The fans know that the team put up the best brand of ball they have been capable of, and the fans know that the club is the best there is in the state.

Richmond MUST win. In placing this great responsibility in the hands of Bill Luce and the members of the Elk baseball club, the fans of Richmond can rest assured of this: IF THERE IS ANY CHANCE OF WINNING THE STATE TITLE THE LOCAL CLUB WILL DO SO.

Joe Thomas has guaranteed the local nine a square shake, and Joe is a man of his word and a good winner and loser.

May the best club win. We think that club is Richmond but whoever wins tomorrow's game, that CLUB IS ENTITLED TO CLAIM THE STATE CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE.

There are some guys who would rob a garbage man. One of those suckers came in to this office some time between 3 o'clock yesterday morning and 3 yesterday afternoon and swiped one entire can of velvet.

That can of Velvet belonged to me. Sheriff Veale and Charlie Walker kindly take notice. This is the second time this has occurred. Duggone it that's twenty yen. Some birds seem tuh think coin grows on trees.

The famous Terminal says that Mrs. Blank of San Pablo is having her house painted a "delicate gray." We're going to have our shack painted a delicate pink.

And then we're going to get off and get the whip.

The A. O. O. S. is steadily gaining in membership, according to Chief S. George T. Griffin.

The associations drawing up a new set of resolutions. The committee consists of Fred Newson, Herman Tuller and Bert Curry.

This in either a joke or someone is lose up stairs: In a story from Martinez, the able scribe says that the bank was probably looted by a visitor to the fights Thursday night. This is probably an attempt to discredit the boxing game but why any intelligent or would be intelligent lad should rise up with a remark like this is beyond our comprehension. Whatever may be said against the boxer and boxing fan, neither can ever be held up as a bank robber. I am strong for any kind of sport, providing it is on the square and it gives me a severe pain to hear some poor stiff rise up and make assertions of this kind.

Probably the bird responsible for the above assertion is one of these sweet boys who is a regular devil when it comes to tearing off the latest dish rag. Took in too much territory. I have a team, the boob he roared. That can clean anything that is stored.

Within a hundred miles near here And then he downed another soda water.

II

But ere the night had slipped away
This boob he shouted clear as day
I can wh'p any sucker in this lot
And now he occupies a little cot.

But as he pipet the classy chick
Who brought his morning mush
he quick
Remarked I hope I don't come back to life

But gee whiz he found it was his wife.

CURTAIN

We admit there is no sense to this, but it fills up space.

Hughie McCauley, the famous Winehaven scribe and motion picture magnate, yesterday announced that Winehaven discovered another baseball star. Said star is Midderwald and a brand new jitney cigar is offered to the first reader giving the cognomen its correct pronunciation. Hughie says it can't be did, so we are safe. Midderwald will divide pitching duty with Pinkerton in the game Sunday afternoon at First street with the Woodmen. Joe Pizzo, another new light in the Winehaven field will catch.

HE CERTAINLY LOOKED TOUGH
In his old suit but after he sent it to Black's and had it cleaned and pressed it really looked better than when it was new. They will do the same for you. Just Phone 723 and have their wagon call. BLACK'S at Macdonald and 10th St.
